Police forces in the United Kingdom are routinely required to provide crime statistics to government bodies and the recording criteria is set nationally. However, the systems used for recording these figures are not generic, nor are the procedures used locally in capturing the crime data. It should be noted that for these reasons this force's response to your questions should not be used for comparison purposes with any other response you may receive.

Notes

The data in this report has been extracted from the Crime Report Information System (CRIS MIS) on 13/02/2020.

It details the number of Aggravated Burglary offences recorded on CRIS between 01/01/2015 and 31/12/2019.

The data in this report has been extracted for the following Home Office Classification Codes:

029/00 - Aggravated Burglary in a Dwelling

029/81 - Aggravated Burglary Residential

031/00 - Aggravated Burglary in a building other than a Dwelling

031/81 - Aggravated Burglary Business and Community

The data is displayed by Owing Borough and by the year the offence was recorded on CRIS.

Note that Robberies arising from an original offence of Aggravated Burglary have been excluded, as these are recorded and counted as Robberies under HOCR and the Most Serious Offence rule.

Police forces in the United Kingdom are routinely required to provide crime statistics to government bodies and the recording criteria is set nationally. However, the systems used for recording these figures are not generic, nor are the procedures used locally in capturing the crime data. It should be noted that for these reasons this force's response to your questions should not be used for comparison purposes with any other response you may receive.

IMPORTANT: Please ensure that the Notes Page is read in conjunction with the data in this report to ensure that it is interpreted correctly.

Police forces in the United Kingdom are routinely required to provide crime statistics to government bodies and the recording criteria is set nationally. However, the systems used for recording these figures are not generic, nor are the procedures used locally in capturing the crime data. It should be noted that for these reasons this force's response to your questions should not be used for comparison purposes with any other response you may receive.

IMPORTANT: Please ensure that the Notes Page is read in conjunction with the data in this report to ensure that it is interpreted correctly.
