

Building Borough Relationships and Private Sector Investment

James Edwards-Tombs, Fibre First Engagement Manger – London and South East

10 December 2020

Openreach is the UK's digital network business

The country's largest team of telecoms experts

35k people

including 28k field engineers

we are a £5bn
company

and we've invested £14bn into our network over the last 10 years

We operate in 5.6k exchange
buildings

supporting over

660

Communications

Provider (CP) customers

We connect

32m

homes and businesses large and small,
to the wider world

Our network has

109k

street cabinets and 4.9m distribution points (poles and underground points)

£12bn

Full Fibre network build is the second biggest infrastructure project build in the UK after HS2

We have over

27k vans

...including 70 electric vehicles so far

EVs

We've hired 6.5k
new trainee engineers
over the last two years

Full Fibre: a platform for the UK's recovery

CeBR Research – London Full Fibre benefits

£13.86 bn

boost to London productivity by 2025 powered by nationwide rollout of full fibre*

54,000

More Londoners into the workforce by 2038

270k

people could move to rural areas
nationally

Commuting trips saved

by people working from home because of Full Fibre. This represents a carbon reduction of 360k tonnes nationally

London Progress

98%

Current FTTC coverage

Connecting homes, businesses, hospitals and GPs

17
Boroughs

and counting in the plan

900
apprentices

hired last year across London

*Assuming the right and political enablers are in place

Making it happen

We all have a vital role to play

Economic Recovery

Highways Enablers

Access to properties

Leadership buy in

openreach

The contents of this pack cannot be copied or reproduced in whole or in part without the written consent of Openreach.
© British Telecommunications plc