

Low-Carbon Skills Letter

Ealing school solar panels programme strategies roof with solar panel fitted

Key information

Publication type: General

Publication date: Thursday 29 February 2024

Contents

Low Carbon Skills Letter

Low Carbon Skills Letter

The London Assembly Environment Committee has written to the Mayor with 12 recommendations to help ensure the capital is training enough skilled workers to support the transition to net zero.

The Committee's letter follows a formal investigation into low carbon skills in London, where the Committee heard from skills growth experts and Greater London Authority officials on the work the Mayor is going, as well as what more could be done.

Read the Letter

Back to table of contents